Theme: Next Steps in Teacher Education in the U.S. and Japan: Celebrating 30 years of JUSTEC

This conference marks the 30th anniversary of JUSTEC and will celebrate a rich history of collaboration in teacher education between Japan and the United States. The conference will be an opportunity to look back upon our accomplishments, to assess the changing landscape of teacher education in the 21st century, and to look forward to new approaches, frameworks, technologies, and international relationships that support teacher learning and educational research.

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Lynn M. Gangone (President, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education)

Prof. Kazuko Takano (President, Japanese Society for the Study on Teacher Education; Professor, Meiji University)

Featured Speakers and Founding Members of JUSTEC:

Dr. David Imig (Senior Fellow, Carnegie Foundation, Stanford; President Emeritus, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education; Professor of the Practice, University of Maryland, College Park)

Dr. Shinichi Suzuki (Professor Emeritus, Waseda University)

About JUSTEC:

The Japan-U.S. Teacher Education Consortium (JUSTEC) was established under the aegis of AACTE in the late 1980s. JUSTEC is a unique educational organization that supports its participants in pursuing not only academic endeavors but also professional networks, for growth in both research and teaching practices for Teacher Education. In addition to the continuous support from the AACTE, the annual JUSTEC conferences have gained the official support of the U.S. Embassy, Tokyo and the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology (MEXT), Japan, thereby providing particular educational benefits for Japan-US educators and Teacher Education.
