

34th Japan-U.S. Teacher Education Consortium

JUSTEC 2025 Call for Proposals

Details will come later!

The Japan-U.S. Teacher Education Consortium (JUSTEC) cordially invites educators to JUSTEC 2025, an in-person conference, to exchange ideas, methods, insights, and challenges in approaching the work of teacher education. University faculty and administrators, P-12 teachers, administrators, and graduate students are invited to submit proposals.

Conference Theme: will come later

Proposal Deadline: will come later

Selection of proposals for the Conference will be made by the JUSTEC Planning Committee by the announced date. Refer to the proposal review criteria below before you submit your proposal. Decisions of the planning committee are final. Additional detail regarding the final recording and submission of presentations will be sent to accepted presenters.

Note:

If your proposal is accepted, it will be used as an abstract in the conference program. If your proposal is conditionally accepted, you will be asked to submit a revised version by the designated date written in a mail from JUSTEC Office.

Submission Policy

- After the deadline, late proposals will be considered provided that there is sufficient space in the conference program and they pass the review process.
- In order to facilitate broad participation, applicants are limited to serve as first presenter for one proposal and to be co-presenter for a second proposal.
- Presenters/co-presenters of accepted proposals must have a paid registration by the designated date, to be included in the program.

Participation Fee: will come later
